It's hard to do life well when you find yourself in a messy life. It's easy to get distracted, confused and overwhelmed. Paul writes to Timothy to encourage him and the church. The Apostle reminds Timothy and the church that God can and will take care of them, even in the messiness called your life. It's good to be reminded of God's help, especially when the storm is raging in your life. We serve a Savior who walks with us every day. That's a reason to rejoice.
